

P A S C A L E

Our wine list is built much like the menu at Pascale - generous, a little indulgent and best enjoyed around a full table. Alongside cellar classics and benchmark producers, you'll find bottles chosen simply because they drink beautifully with the food we love to cook: Champagne with salty focaccia, textured whites with burrata and octopus, savoury Pinot Noir beside handmade pasta, and structured reds made for dry-aged steaks and slow evenings. Some wines are familiar, some quietly unusual, but each has earned its place for flavour, personality and the pleasure of sharing it.

PIEDMONT

GIO MANZONE - PIEDMONT FOR THE TABLE

From the steep hillsides of Monforte d'Alba, Gio Manzone produces classically styled Nebbiolo with perfume, structure and remarkable ageing potential. These wines capture the savoury elegance of Piedmont - from the youthful energy of Il Crutin to the deeper, more powerful expressions of the Castelletto and Gramolere Crus.
